NextHome Destination joins the NextHome Franchise
The franchisee opens office in Bozeman, Montana

Pleasanton, CA— March 2, 2017 — NextHome is proud to announce our newest addition to the NextHome franchise – NextHome Destination. It is the second NextHome franchise in the state of Montana.

Based out of Bozeman, the new brokerage will be owned and operated by the husband and wife team of Sarah and Abe Antonucci. NextHome Destination will provide residential and second home sales services to the residents of Bozeman, Belgrade, Livingston, Manhattan, Three Forks, and Big Sky.

Licensed since 2013, Sarah entered the real estate sales side of the business with significant experience in housing. As a graduate of Montana State University with a degree in Construction Engineering, she was the project manager for Wright Brothers Building Company and supervised various developments.

Sarah began her real estate sales career when Abe was working full time as a police officer. It was at that time they bought a home and learned the true value of home ownership.

“We bought our first home in our early 20’s,” recalled Sarah. “Seeing what owning our home provided for us in long term financial security, made me realize how important it was for me to advise others about making homeownership a priority.”

Shortly after buying their home, they invested in a land deal which led to the Antonuccis to custom build their next house.

In just a few short years, Sarah built her real estate sales career into a thriving business. So much so that Abe left his career as a police officer in July of 2015 to join Sarah in selling real estate full time.

In 2016, the Antonuccis sold an incredible 70 transaction sides. Abe credits the growth of their business to personal relationships developed rather than focusing solely on online leads.

“We worked on creating a great experience for our clients,” he said. “By providing quality marketing for our listings and being a real estate resource for the members of our community, we have been able to significantly grow our business.”

In 2016, the couple began exploring options of opening their own brokerage. Hearing about NextHome through a real estate colleague, they found the NextHome franchise and model to be the perfect fit for their new venture.

“We wanted to expand our marketing and online reach for our clients,” said Sarah. “Everything NextHome had to offer made so much sense for us. It was an easy decision to become a NextHome franchisee and we are excited about the possibilities.”

When not selling real estate, the Antonuccis spend time with their four children – Natalia (age 11), Jacoby (8), Marianna (4) and Matteo (2). The family loves to travel and explore new destinations. A perfect reason why NextHome Destination is an appropriate name for their brokerage.

Please join us in welcoming Sarah, Abe and the rest of their team at NextHome Destination for the opening of their brand new NextHome office!
