NextHome franchise opens a second location in Nevada

Mathieu Corbeil opens NextHome At Your Service

Pleasanton, CA— May 31, 2017 — NextHome is proud to announce our newest addition to the franchise, NextHome At Your Service. The new brokerage is the second NextHome franchise location opened in the state of Nevada.

NextHome At Your Service will be owned and operated by real estate broker, Mathieu Corbeil. The brokerage will service the areas of North Las Vegas, Henderson, Pahrump, Boulder City, and Mesquite.

The brokerage will focus on residential real estate services such as first time home buyers, investment properties, and multi-unit properties.

Home to nearly 700,000 residents, the Las Vegas area is one of the most visited cities in the nation. Nearly 43 million people visited Las Vegas in 2016.

As a new brokerage owner, Canadian-native Corbeil started his career in real estate several years ago.

Corbeil was a partner in a construction company in Canada before opening his own construction company - DEZAM. The company specialized in providing metal siding for commercial and residential properties.

While living in Montreal, Corbeil became familiar with Las Vegas as an investor. He purchased several properties for fix and flip in what had become a hot market. As the United States came out of the recession that began in 2007, Las Vegas was an attractive option for those looking to purchase properties in a growing city.

Knowing he wanted to move away from his construction business and full time into real estate, the Corbeil family relocated to Las Vegas. Corbeil started as a REALTOR® in 2015 with a local independent brokerage.

“I was new to the local market as a REALTOR® and wanted to get going,” recalls Corbeil. “That’s where I found out that all brokerages are not created equal. I didn’t get very much in ways of support or technology and had to find many of those resources on my own.”

Corbeil earned the trust of his clients quickly and found himself involved with the team of investors who were bringing a National Hockey League (NHL) team to Las Vegas.

In early 2017, Corbeil was ready to start his own real estate company. As an unsupported agent, he felt many times he was on his own anyway. While he was looking for real estate franchise options, his real estate coach suggested he look at NextHome.

“I had been working with my coach for some time and saw great results,” said Corbeil. “After talking with her and listening to her suggestion to check out NextHome, I was happy to have found this franchise.”

“The branding for NextHome stands out in a crowded market,” added Corbeil. “The simplicity of the technology and the value our agents will receive is second to none. I especially want to provide personal coaching and goal setting with our agents. I want to give back by providing the resources I didn’t receive when I started real estate.”

When not selling real estate, Corbeil spends time with family. He and his wife, Nicole, have two daughters – 10-year-old Laurie and 9-year-old Megane. The Corbeils love to head to Red Rock Canyon and hike the trails of the famous National Conservation area.

Please join us in welcoming Corbeil and the rest of his team at NextHome At Your Service for the opening of their new NextHome office!
