NextHome Select opens in the Sacramento Region
The NextHome franchisee represents the 47th California office launched

Pleasanton, CA — November 3, 2017 — NextHome is proud to announce our newest addition to the franchise, NextHome Select. This new brokerage is the 47th office location opened in California by the NextHome franchise.

The Sacramento area-based brokerage will be owned and operated by veteran real estate broker, Jason Lewis. He will be joined on the leadership team by his wife and business partner, Tiffany. Jason will handle all aspects of sales and the day-to-day operations of the brokerage, while Tiffany will handle all back-office responsibilities, including setting appointments, contract administration, and lead generation.

NextHome Select will service the counties of Sacramento, Placer, El Dorado and Yolo. The company will provide many different residential services for both buyers and sellers such as first-time home buyers, investor purchases, move-up buyers, luxury sales, and multi-family properties.

As a second-generation real estate professional, Jason worked under the supervision of his father, Herman Lewis. As the owner of Herman Lewis Architect, Jason's father built the largest home building company in the Sacramento Region. Starting in 1991, Jason worked alongside Herman for nearly a decade, building large custom homes throughout Sacramento County. In the early 2000's, Jason made the move to Hawaii and began his own successful building company on the island of Kona.

In 2003, Jason returned to Sacramento and attained his California General Contractor's License. Having the knowledge of building a house from the ground up, in addition to the sales process of selling the finished home, Jason feels that provides his clients a unique experience.

"I was fortunate enough to be involved in a business where I was able to learn everything about a home – from the foundation to the final sale," said Jason. "I feel that having the experience and knowledge to be able to give trusted advice to my clients is a unique benefit when it comes to working with our team."

In 2008, Jason opened Brock Realty (which later became Realty World – Gold), where over the next nine years, the company saw sales in excess of $10 million annually.

As NextHome Select, Jason and Tiffany look to represent buyers and sellers with their unique team approach where clients will be provided first-class service.

When not working, the Lewis' focus on family. Jason has a daughter, Jenna (age 17) and the couple have a 2-year old daughter, Kaylin. With a due date of April 25, 2018, the couple are expecting their second child together.

Please join us in welcoming Jason, Tiffany and the rest of the team at NextHome Select to the NextHome family!
