NextHome Space opens in Northern California

NextHome expands into Fremont with brokerage led by Harpal Burmhi

Pleasanton, CA — January 8, 2019 — NextHome is proud to announce our newest addition to the franchise, NextHome Space. The brokerage represents the 63rd office location opened in the state of California for the NextHome franchise.

The company will be led by broker/owner Harpal Burmhi and he will handle all day-to-day operations for the company.

The Fremont-based brokerage will focus on helping clients throughout the Bay Area and the Greater Silicon Valley region. Cities include Fremont, Mountain View, Santa Clara, Sunnyvale, Cupertino, Campbell, Milpitas, Los Gatos, Saratoga, Morgan Hill, and Gilroy.

NextHome Space will handle first-time home buyers, move up buyers, investors, condos and townhouses, and all forms of residential sales of 1-4 units.

Coming from a background of engineering, Harpal was first licensed in 2004 and started with an independent brokerage before moving on to a nationally franchised office.

Doing very well in sales, Harpal decided to go out on his own in 2013 when he launched his brokerage, BA Better Homes. Selling up to $10 million yearly, Harpal has been a top producer in the area for several years.

In 2018, Harpal was looking to connect with a franchise that allowed him to streamline business and create an easier way for him to deliver services to his clients.

“Once I found NextHome, I saw that the company provided just what I was looking for,” said Harpal. “With my history in the engineering world, I like systems and thoroughness. NextHome was a perfect fit for my style of how I work with my clients.”

When not selling real estate, Harpal and his wife of 31 years, Jagdeep, enjoy volunteering time at their local temple, the Fremont Sikh Temple. Jagdeep will be joining NextHome Space as a REALTOR® this year.

The couple have two daughters. Nimerta (27 years old) who recently completed medical school and will begin working as a doctor this upcoming May. Raveena (22) is a student at San Jose State University as a business major.

Please join us in congratulating Harpal and the rest of the team at NextHome Space on their brand new NextHome office location in Fremont, CA!
