NextHome Dream Seekers Realty Opens in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania
Newest brokerage is female, veteran, and immigrant-owned, bringing a new depth of understanding to Central Pennsylvania real estate.

Pleasanton, CA — April 12, 2024 — NextHome is proud to announce our newest addition to the franchise, NextHome Dream Seekers Realty, located in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. The brokerage joins the growing NextHome franchise which has over 600 active office locations across the country.

NextHome Dream Seekers Realty is owned by U.S. Army veteran and experienced real estate professional Ysmaïne Domiciano.

“Clients who experience the NextHome Dream Seekers Realty difference will walk away saying that this was the best experience they’ve ever had, led by really knowledgeable professionals,” Ysmaïne said.

Conveniently located at 4201 Crums Mill Road, Suite 103 in Harrisburg, NextHome Dream Seekers Realty serves clients throughout Cumberland, Dauphin, Perry, York, Lancaster, and Lebanon counties.

Under Ysmaïne’s talented leadership, NextHome Dream Seekers Realty is a knowledgeable resource for relocations, investments, and all other types of residential real estate. As a tri-lingual REALTOR® who speaks Portuguese, Spanish, and English, Ysmaïne enjoys serving the growing Brazilian community in Central Pennsylvania.

Born in Sao Paulo, Brazil, Ysmaïne earned her law degree from The University of Sao Paulo in 2009 and moved to the United States in 2010. Her heart for service soon led Ysmaïne to a career with the U.S. Army.

As a Multichannel Transmission Systems Operator, Ysmaïne ensured the success of a variety of communications infrastructure. While continuing to serve her country, Ysmaïne obtained a second Bachelor's Degree with a dual major in Supply Chain Management and Information Technology at the Shippensburg University, graduating in the Spring of 2017.

Her exceptional managerial and organizational skills led to a career in Corporate America working with AHOLD Delhaize.

All the while, Ysmaïne harbored a love for real estate and a passion for her hobby of investing in homes. In 2018, she obtained her real estate license and began a full-time career in real estate in 2020.

“I fell in love with being able to be a part of such a huge step in people's lives,” Ysmaïne said. “Real estate is so rewarding for me on many levels.”

Ysmaine gained experience working with various brands over the years including Century21, Keller Williams, Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices, and eXp. Her service-driven approach built a thriving business. She earned multiple production awards as her sales volume swelled to more than 40 transactions per year.

Ysmaine is a certified Military Relocation Professional (MRP), a Senior Real Estate Specialist (SRES), a Pricing Strategy Advisor (PSA), an Accredited Buyer's Representative (ABR), Real Estate Negotiation Expert (RENE), and a Seller Representative Specialist (SRS).

“I believe in continuing education,” Ysmaine said. “All this knowledge allows me to provide better service and representation to all my clients from all ages and backgrounds and also to be a more educated team leader and mentor for my team.”

Eventually, Ysmaine’s drive to provide excellent service and her talent for mentoring led her to think about opening her own brokerage.

After thoroughly interviewing with four different brands, Ysmaine knew NextHome was the right choice.

“I loved the support and the organization,” Ysmaine said. “But most importantly, NextHome was all about putting humans over houses. Because of my military service, that really resonated with me. In the military, we are there to serve and protect. NextHome embodies that approach, combining it with plug-and-play resources and great support for my future agents.”

Today, NextHome Dream Seekers Realty is a regional resource for exceptional service.

“At NextHome Dream Seekers Realty, our clients know that they can rely on their agent for ethical and knowledgeable representation,” Ysmaine said. “We are passionate about building relationships and helping clients achieve their dreams, with a focus on education over just transactions.”

As someone who cares deeply about her community, Ysmaine can often be found volunteering with local food pantries. She also helps with the annual Harrisburg City’s initiative to deliver and install carbon monoxide detectors in lower-income neighborhoods.

When she isn’t helping clients achieve their homeownership dreams, Ysmaine enjoys running mud race obstacle courses with a group of close friends.

Please join us in congratulating Ysmaine on the opening of NextHome Dream Seekers Realty in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania!
