NextHome Murphys Realty Continues Legacy of Excellence

Pleasanton, CA — April 11, 2025 — NextHome is proud to announce our newest addition to the franchise, NextHome Murphys Realty, located in Murphys, California. The brokerage joins the growing NextHome franchise that currently has more than 600 active office locations across the country.

With offices located in the heart of this small town, NextHome Murphys Realty serves clients throughout Arnold, Angels Camp, Vallecito, San Andreas, Copperopolis, Bear Valley, and the remainder of Calaveras County.

The company will provide services in land sales, ranch properties, commercial units, property management, and investment properties in addition to all other types of residential real estate transactions.

Under the leadership of broker/owner Tammy Dillashaw, NextHome Murphys Realty combines decades of area knowledge with industry-leading technology under one roof.

“The Murphys office will continue the 5-star service that people in our area have come to expect,” Tammy said. “We pride ourselves on providing personalized service rooted in genuine connections. In a small town where relationships really matter, we balance professionalism with a friendly, casual approach, giving each client a great real estate experience.”

For almost nine years, Tammy has been the proud owner of NextHome Utica Properties in nearby Angels Camp, California. From the start, Tammy and her team have been high producers - winning awards every year since 2016.

The chance for Tammy to expand with a second office came when Murphys real estate icons Randy Norrie and Hana-Sue Drilling were ready to sell their highly-respected independent firm.

For Tammy, the opportunity to acquire the business was a dream come true.

“They have been in that location for about 30 years,” Tammy explained. “It’s an incredible location with an established reputation. Both Randy and Hana-Sue are extremely personable, well-connected, and offer unparalleled area knowledge after a lifetime of real estate service. I am thrilled that they will be staying on as agents as we transition the office to a NextHome franchise.”

Today, NextHome Murphys Realty is a one-stop-shop for clients seeking exceptional knowledge and personalized service from some of the area’s best real estate talent.

Tammy's personal legacy of excellence in real estate began almost 30 years ago. She was part owner of a construction company that built custom homes. In 2008, she became a licensed real estate agent and focused her attention on single-family residence and land sales.

Tammy's drive to elevate real estate experiences in Northern California prompted her to open a NextHome franchise in 2016. As the 16th NextHome brokerage to open in the state of California, Tammy was on the ground floor of NextHome's rise to national prominence.

"I absolutely love NextHome and would never think about changing," Tammy said. "What sets NextHome apart is their leadership team's accessibility. When I have a question, I'm talking to someone I know. You know the corporate team, and they know you. That level of service is rare."

Looking to the future, Tammy and the exceptional agents at NextHome Murphys Realty look forward to welcoming additional agents who are committed to relationships-based real estate. By combining industry-leading tools with a heart for helping others, NextHome Murphys Realty is dedicated to enhancing real estate experiences for clients throughout Northern California.

"We have all the tools we need to get the job done right, from marketing to transaction management, so we can focus on giving you the best service possible," Tammy said. "We're here to make sure your real estate experience is nothing short of amazing. We are fully committed to you and making sure everything goes smoothly."

Tammy has watched Calaveras County grow since moving there as a teen. Whether she's volunteering with the Angels Camp Business Association, serving on the Calaveras County Association of Realtors Board of Directors, or spending time with family, Tammy brings warmth and dedication to everything she does.

Outside of real estate, Tammy's life is full of love and adventure. She is a loving grandmother to six grandchildren and alongside her husband, Frank Thrower, Tammy is also helping her oldest son raise two llamas named Haley and Joker. At home, she dotes on her two dogs: Max, a German Shepherd, and Gwendolyn, a sweet rescue pup.

Please join us in congratulating Tammy and the entire team at NextHome Murphys Realty on the opening of their new office!
